

Pietro Battistoni, Violinist

VERONA, ITALY · pierobattistoni@gmail.com · +39 3468815157

LANGUAGES

Italian

---

English

---

Spanish; Castilian

---

PROFILE

Violinist with large experience in orchestra and chamber music playing.

Specialized in Baroque Violin: historically informed performance on period instrument, musicological research about philological praxis and aesthetics.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Freelance

He performs regularly with: the “Orchestra of the 18th century”, founded by Frans Brüggen, with “Cappella Marciana” of St. Mark in Venice, conducted by Marco Gemmani, with “Concerto Romano”, lead by Alessandro Quarta, with “Ensemble Aurora”, lead by Enrico Gatti.

In September 2021 he got invited to give a lecture about his thesis “Giuseppe Torelli and the birth of the violin concerto” at the Ton Koopman Academy.

In 2019 he took part in a joint program of chamber music between the Royal Conservatoire in The Hague and The Juilliard School in New York, where he performed coached by Monica Hugget, Richard Egarr and Robert D. Levine.

In 2017 he joined “Theresia Youth Baroque Orchestra”, conducted by Claudio Astronio, Alfredo Bernardini and Chiara Banchini.

He took part in several recordings with major labels, such as: Glossa, Etcetera, Novantiqua, Tactus.

Violinist, L'Appassionata Chamber Orchestra

Verona

Stable member of this chamber orchestra on modern instruments from 2021, with the role of concertino (1st violin, 1st stand). With this orchestra he performed in important seasons and festivals in major theatres and chamber halls, such as: La Fenice in Venice, Sala Maffeiana, Teatro Filarmonico and Teatro Ristori in Verona, San Giovanni in Laterano in Rome, Sala Verdi in Milan.

EDUCATION

Conservatorio “E. F. Dall’Abaco”, Master in Modern Violin (Diploma v.o.)

Sep 2014, Verona (Italy)

Conservatorio “E. F. Dall’Abaco”, Master in Baroque Violin

Feb 2016, Verona (Italy)

Koninklijk Conservatorium, Bachelor in Baroque Violin

Jun 2019, Den Haag (Netherlands)

Koninklijk Conservatorium, Master in Baroque Violin

Jul 2021, Den Haag (Netherlands)